A.T.H.S. Homecoming Has Record Crowd At Football Game, Dance

Prizes Awarded for Floats in Big Parade on Friday Night

Ideal weather, record breaking crowds, and a football victory combined to make the Homecoming celebration Saturday at Antioch Township the best in many years. The celebration started with parade and pep session Friday evening.

An estimated 3,000 adults and children watched the half mile parade through the business district. Business establishments entered cars and trucks in gay colors and decorations. The fire department and the Rescue squad had all their equipment in the line. The parade was impressively led by the local unit of Girl Scouts and their Scout Leader, Mrs. Anthony Scully.

The grand prize for decorated floats was won by the Junior class. Their float was made in the shape of a telephone with the slogan "Hold that line."

The Freshman class collected a huge pile of wood for the bonfire which was lighted after the students and friends returned to the school campus. Richard Vlk and faculty sponsor Miss Theresa Wehr directed the pep rally.

Lois Flattum Will Play Leading Role In Junior Production

Miss Lois Flattum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Flattum of Lake Villa, will play the leading role in the Junior class play, "Past Imperfect," to be presented at the Antioch Township High school on Friday, Nov. 6.

Lois is a good student and a very active member in school activities, according to the school authorities. She has a natural talent for acting which makes her capable of playing the part of the typical teen-ager who doesn't understand her parents and who firmly believe that they do not understand their own sons and daughters.

There will be two performances, a matinee performance at 1:20 p. m. and the evening performance at 8 o'clock. The public is invited to either or both presentations. Tickets are now on sale, and may be purchased from any member of the Junior class.

Representatives from the play will broadcast on Tuesday, Nov. 3, over WKRS radio station following the 11 o'clock news.

Ground Broken For New $107,687 School In Newport Township

Ground was broken this week for the new consolidated grade school on Hogan rd. south of Rte. 173 in Newport township.

The building, costing $107,687, will contain six classrooms, an all-purpose gymnasium with stage, offices, teachers' room, basement and maintenance room with provision for a cafeteria later.

The district was formed last year of the West Newport, Lone Oak, and Rosecrans one-room school districts to take care of increased enrollments.

Ekstrand, Schad and West are the architects and the R. J. Borregard Co. of Waukegan is the general contractor. The new district bonded itself for $130,000 whereas its debt limit was $175,000. Should the area continue to show increased enrollment, more money will be available for expansion. Cost of the new building was placed at $7.20 a square foot, which is considered low.

Members of the board of education are Lawrence Loecher, president; Mrs. Wilma Kaufman, secretary; Anton Cermak, Avery Vose, Alfred Ames, Claude McNamara, and Mrs. Rose Hogan.

Dr. Harvey Moves Office
Dr. Samuel Harvey who has had his office with Dr. L. J. Zimmermann in the Bank building in Antioch has moved his office to the same suite of offices as those occupied by Dr. A. N. Berke and Dr. Carlucci at 988 S. Main st. Dr. Harvey has been practicing in Antioch for almost a year, limiting it to orthodontia, the straightening of teeth.

Drilling of Village Water Well Started

Drilling was started Wednesday on the deep water well for the village by the Layne-Western Co. of Aurora.

Drilling was down 83 feet the first day and while work was stopped early and no drilling was done today, there is a possibility that the well will be completed tomorrow.

A small amount of rock was encountered which slowed up but didn't stop the process. Because of the largeness of the hole water is dumped in to force out the dirt and gravel.

Pipe for the water line already has been delivered.

The Aurora company has guaranteed the village a well capable of 400 gallons a minute.

Two Professional Acts Chosen For Halloween Party On October 30

Parade of Costumed Children to Be Bigger Than Any Previous Year

Many Antioch children are already planning their Halloween costumes they will wear in the parade sponsored by the Antioch News and the Antioch Theatre for Friday evening, Oct. 30.

All grade and pre-grade school children in the Antioch area may take part and compete for prizes in the various divisions according to grades.

They will meet at the Antioch Grade School at 8:30 p. m. Children of that school will go to their own classrooms; those from other schools will be assigned to rooms as they arrive.

The parade will be down Main st. to Lake st., on Lake to Victoria st., on Victoria to Quality st., and on Quality to Main and back to the grade school again. The children will march directly to the stage of the auditorium where the costumes will be judged and prizes awarded. Then they will take their seats in the auditorium and will be entertained with a stage performance.

Two Professional Acts
Fred Swanson, owner of the Antioch Theatre, announced yesterday that he has obtained two outstanding acts that should be popular with the children. One is Frank Shepard, a magician who enters a lot of comedy in his act. The other is Louis Top with his monkey, dogs and other pets.

The entertainment will be held this year in the school instead of the theatre because of the big increase in number of school children. Last year the number was so large that the pre-school children could not be admitted. This year they will be given their place along with the rest. Parents will be able to accompany the little children and remain with them through the show.

Howard Gaston, publisher of the Antioch News, said that judges of the costumes will be selected and announced next week.

Horan Urges Training For Civilian Defense

At the recent meeting of the Antioch Unit American Legion Auxiliary, John L. Horan, local civil defense director, told the auxiliary of the urgent need for an active civil defense program in this community and said that he intends to get the program into action as soon as possible. He is desirous of having as many auxiliary members and others take courses in first aid, nurses aide and everything pertaining to welfare of the country for service should trouble arise unexpectedly.

Oakwood Knoll Streets And Water Lines Done
Streets have been completed and water lines laid in the new Oakwood subdivision of the Crown Realty Co.

David Miller, engineer said that tests of the streets show a depth of paving in some instances two inches more than required.

Three homes have been built as samples, but the sales of lots will not start until next spring. The Crown Co., according to Miller has laid out some beautiful drives and is really making the subdivision one of which Antioch can be proud.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Horton and Mrs. Effie Nelson visited Mr. and Mrs. Fidele Loubert of Zion Sunday evening.

Danes Impressed by Antioch Stores and Public High School

Visiting Hardware Dealers Had Good Time Here Yesterday

The flag of Denmark, waving beside the flag of the United States over the Coddington Hardware store, was the symbol of hospitality which the owners of the store expressed to 15 Danish hardware merchants, their guests yesterday afternoon.

At the sight of the flag of their homeland, white cross on red field, the visitors broke into song and ended with cheers for their hosts.

It was a day of enjoyment both for the group that included Antioch on its tour of the United States and to the several hosts.

Coming to Antioch by bus from Chicago, the 14 men and one woman first were entertained at a steak luncheon by Principal Albert Dittman and members of the Antioch High School board of Education.

The visitors dined in the school cafeteria and then toured the building, stopping in the classrooms and watching the students and teachers at work. They saw the fine auditorium and gymnasium and the large amount of equipment in the shops.

Impressed With School
"Your beautiful building, your equipment, your lighting, they amaze us," said Fritz Carstens, a merchant from Vedbaek, Denmark.

Sequoits Beat Rams In Homecoming Game; Will Play Glenbrook

After having climbed to third place in the Northwest Conference standing by the 25 to 6 defeat of the Grayslake Rams in the Homecoming game, here Saturday, Paul Kessenich's Sequoits will go for a second place in a game with the second place Glenbrook High there Saturday afternoon.

Glenbrook's only defeat was at the hands of the Elmhurst Bears which also defeated Antioch by one touchdown.

"I believe that if the boys play the kind of ball they did in last Saturday's third quarter we will be able to beat Glenbrook," said Coach Kessenich.

Grayslake held the Sequoits to a scoreless tie during the first half of the Homecoming game as the result of frequent fumbles and penalties, but in the third quarter the Antioch eleven exploded with four touchdowns for 25 points.

The local gridgers opened the second half with a 46-yard drive in three plays, culminated by Bill Gallagher's 25-yard end sweep which brought a touchdown. Featured in this drive was a 20-yard pass from Bill Terry to Phil Vos. Tom McGree kicked the extra point.

The second touchdown starting on Grayslake's 44-yard line also took just three plays to produce a touchdown. Bill Blake went through center for 29 yards to pay dirt.

The third touchdown was scored after Jack Lawrence intercepted a pass and the ball was worked to the two-yard line from which (continued on page 5)

He was born Sept. 19, 1888 in Czechoslovakia and came to America 45 years ago. He was a twenty-five year member of the fire department and a member of the Fox Lake Chamber of Commerce. He served as a member of the Grant High School board of education one term.

He operated a grocery under his name for 33 years.

Surviving are the widow, Marie, two daughters, Mrs. Emily Relitz, and Miss Grace Bejcek, both of Ingleside; a son, Otto J. Bejcek of San Gabriel, Calif.; four sisters, Mrs. Marie Sokul, Riverside, Ill.; Mrs. Theresa Wittman, Berwyn, and two others in Czechoslovakia, and a brother also in that country. There are five grandchildren.

The funeral service was held at 2 p. m. Saturday at the Strang Funeral home with the Rev. Abts officiating. Burial was in Fox Lake cemetery.

Migratory Fowl Season To Open Friday at Noon

Expect Great Many Hunters Despite Unseasonable Weather

Season for the hunting of ducks, geese, coots and other migratory fowl will open at 12 noon on Friday and residents of the lakes region will again hear the thunder of hundreds of rounds of shotgun shells exploding within a few minutes after the opening.

Regulations this year will permit a longer season, and shooting will be allowed from one-half hour before sunrise until sunset, with the exception of opening day when shooting will be delayed until noon.

Limits for this season will vary according to the birds in question. Limit on ducks has been set at four per day, excluding mergansers, with not more than one wood duck. Possession limit, after the first day, will be two days shooting limit. In the case of geese, coots and most other birds the possession limit is one day's shooting limit. The limit on coots, or mudhens, is ten per day.

In addition to a state hunting license, each hunter seeking to kill migratory fowl must have in his possession an unexpired federal migratory fowl stamp or "duck" stamp. These may be purchased at any postoffice.

The season will be open until Dec. 16.

Excuses R. S. Boys
An innovation this year is the fact that high school boys who present a hunting license and a duck stamp will be excused from classes Friday. This was announced at a meeting of all boys at the school this morning. Russell Carteron, inspector with the Illinois state department of Conservation was the speaker at the meeting and gave a short talk on safety with firearms and regulations concerning hunting. A question period was held after the talk.

Past Masters Guests Of Sequoit Masonic Lodge Saturday Night

Past Masters' night will be held at Wesley hall, Methodist church on Saturday night, Oct. 24, at 6:30 p. m.

"This is the traditional annual banquet of the year for Antioch's Masonic lodge," announced John Blackman, worshipful master of Sequoit lodge No. 827. "On this night we honor our leaders of years gone by in an appreciation for the time they have devoted to our local lodge."

The Rev. Thomas Pender, 33rd degree Mason will be the speaker of the evening. The Abbott Laboratory quartette known as "The Medicine Men" will furnish the music. The lodge's junior warden, Edward Schippman, and his committee will serve the banquet promptly at the time announced. All Masonic members are invited to the banquet.

Massopust Appeals For Clothing For Korean War Orphans

George W. Masopust, former Antioch Township High School student, now in military service, has written to the Antioch News from Korea appealing for clothing to be given to an orphanage of Korean children whose parents were killed in the war.

Masopust, who has opportunity to see first hand the ravages of the Korean war, said that the youngsters need everything in the way of clothing — shoes, socks, dresses, suits, coats, caps—anything.

The packages can be sent to either the Catholic or Protestant Chaplain, Fourth Fighter Interceptor Wing, APO 76, care of Postmaster, San Francisco, Calif., or to him: A/c George W. Masopust, AF 164-23561, Fourth Supply, Fourth F. I. W., APO 76, c/o Postmaster, San Francisco, Calif.

Meeting To Interest Hunters
The Men's Club of the Antioch Methodist church is planning a meeting on Nov. 2 that will be in keeping with the fall season and of special interest to hunters. Experts will illustrate and demonstrate hunting techniques. The dinner preceding the program will be served under the chairmanship of Mrs. Einar Petersen and all men of the community are invited.

Robt. Thompson Killed In Crash Of Navy Bomber

Accident in Bermuda En Route to Porto Rico on Monday

A message confirming the death of Ens. Robert Allen Thompson, 22, in an airplane crash at St. George's Harbor, Bermuda, was received here yesterday by his wife, June Hunter Thompson from Vice Admiral Holloway, Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Thompson, who has been with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hunter of 338 Harden street since her husband was transferred from Quonset Point, R. I., to Porto Rico two weeks ago, received a message Tuesday that he was among four missing Navy men.

News dispatches during the day, however, told of the crash of a two-engine bomber with 10 Navy men aboard and listed Mr. Thompson as having perished.

The telegram yesterday said that the body was being sent to Antioch.

Body To Be Sent Here

The news of the death of Ensign Thompson came as a shock to the Antioch and Lake Villa communities as well as his relatives. He was widely known throughout Lake county having served as part time announcer over radio station WKRS at Waukegan.

Mrs. Thompson last saw her husband alive when she left him at Quonset Point, R. I., to motor home with her mother after he had been ordered to go to Porto Rico. Last (continued on page 5)

Parents of Teen-agers Asked to Consider Antioch Youth Center

Parents of Antioch Township High School students have been asked to meet at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, Oct. 28 at the Scout House to discuss the possibility of a Youth Center in Antioch.

Letters have been sent to them by Mrs. Richard B. Seyfarth, secretary of the Advisory Council, Antioch Township Youth organization, seeking their approval or disapproval of the proposed project.

"Youth Centers are operating very successfully throughout the country—operated entirely by the teenagers themselves with an adult advisory board overseeing them," the letter said. "Many are self-sustaining at not heavy expense to the individuals. We believe such a center would perform a real function in meeting the social needs of the youth in Antioch township," the letter continued.

The letter said that two centers have been visited during open hours and were found to be very well managed with chaperones in attendance. The amusement facilities included ping pong tables, pool tables, dance and recreation area with juke box, canteens supplying soft drinks, ice cream, etc., and tables and booths, everything that a high school boy or girl needs for a pleasant social evening with other teen-agers.

A party will be held for high school students Saturday night, Oct. 24 from 8 to 11 p. m. at the high school. The proceeds will go to the proposed youth center fund. There will be refreshments.

Legion Will Sponsor Lakeland Players In Production Of Harvey

The Antioch American Legion post 748 will sponsor the Lakeland Players in the stage production of "Harvey," the play made famous by Joe E. Brown.

The play will be given at the Antioch High School the nights of Friday and Saturday, Nov. 13 and 14, and the profits will be given to the Victory Hospital Building fund.

Tickets will soon go on sale at the offices of local physicians and will be placed in business houses later.

The Lakeland Players are already in rehearsal for this production.

The American Legion will have a double appeal to the public in this play; it will present the Lakeland Players at their best and at the same time will be aiding a worthy cause, according to W. V. Lahti, publicity director.

Stomachs, Not Storage!

Secretary of Agriculture Benson opened the fifth National Vegetable Week recently by observing that it was "an example of a segment of agriculture moving its peak production at the top of the marketing season into stomachs and not storage." He further pointed out that the nation's 735,000 vegetable growers have never had a support or control program and operate entirely in the free market.

In making this week and other such periodic events a success, the food retailers of the country play one of the big roles. Through advertising and promotional efforts of many kinds they stimulate sales—and they move the crops at prices which provide the grower with a fair return and the consumer with an excellent buy. Today, with surpluses existing or in prospect in a number of basic agricultural fields, farmer-retailer cooperation has taken a greater importance than at any time since the depression.

Going farther, this is an excellent illustration of how well the distribution system of the nation is geared to its production system—whether that production comes from the farm or from the factory. Our high material living standards have a double foundation—mass production and mass distribution.

How Much Do You Pay?

Very few of us realize how much money we pay in taxes — for the reason that so large a part of the tax burden is indirect.

The National Association of Manufacturers has done some research on the subject, using government statistics and other reliable data. Here is what it believes average families in the listed income brackets pay:

Four thousand dollars—$1,093, or 27.3 per cent of income; $7,500—$2,766, or 36.9 per cent of income; $10,000—$4,005, or 40 per cent of income.

Keep that in mind next time you hear the hoary old argument that only the well-to-do and the rich need really worry about taxes.

Two Basic Rights

Alabama has joined the growing list of states which have outlawed the closed shop and similar labor-management agreements. In signing the bill, Governor Persons said he approved it "because I believe in free labor and free enterprise."

That statement covers the matter accurately. Long ago, and rightly, labor leaders fought bitterly against employers who practiced "union busting" and made a practice of blacklisting union men. Today unequivocal laws, with the full strength of public opinion behind them, protect the right of a man to voluntarily join a union. It is equally vital that his right not to join a union if he so decides be protected. There can be no such thing as free labor so long as a worker is forced to become a member of any organization and pay its dues if he is to earn his living.

The Competitive Urge

The house organ of a leading oil company recently published an unusual article. The title was, "Competition Is Healthy." The illustration showed the company's familiar emblem, which is displayed at all service stations dispensing its products—and also showed the emblems of nine other companies which are its competitors.

The text said, "We are engaged in one of the most competitive industries in the world. . . . There are literally thousands of oil companies of all sizes competing against each other. Some that are big now were once small—and may become small again. Some that are small now will become big."

"The oil industry knows that competition is healthy. As Americans, we have a special fondness for the competitive urge. For competition keeps us on our toes. It adds zest to our lives. It makes the race worth running."

"Our nation has achieved great things because its citizens want to excel in whatever they do. . . . and because they are free to compete, where and whenever they choose."

That attitude is characteristic of the oil industry as a whole. Competition goes on 365 days a year, in every phase of the oil industry's complex work from exploring new fields to selling the finished product in the service station. And the result, to the consumer, is more and better oil products, fairly priced.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

This week I will proceed to tell the teachers how to teach—also tell the mamas and papas how to act, behave and proceed. Surveying the situation and putting two and two together, I come up with a conclusion that there has been a screw loose some place or we wouldn't now have the highways jammed with discourtesy, law makers jittery and scared stiff if a little delegation of a half dozen shows up and pounds the table, socialism getting a sizeable foothold, baby sitting now being big business. Nobody is exactly happy—maybe by manana—but not today.

But I am an optimist, like the guy who says, please pass the cream versus the gloomy duck who says, pass the milk if there happens to be any left.

At the school house the teacher has to be given the right to demand discipline—the right to lower the boom on the obstreperous. Courtesy needs to be put in every curriculum. In the home, mama and papa need put a brake on their skylarking—fire the baby sitter—read AEsop to their off-shoots. You don't believe that a wolf clothed in a lamb's skin is a lamb, if you savvy your AEsop. Give the younger buds and freshmen a chance to show off, you in the frisky but 40 class. And you politicians—stock up on some vertebrae starch. School time is here—everybody should get in the act. First thing you know, you might say something important, says Henry. Well, that's nice of you, I says—thank you kindly.

Yours with the low-down,
JO SERRA

Schenning-Nigro Rites At Holy Name Church In Wilmet on Saturday

A rite at Holy Name Catholic church in Wilmet Saturday morning joined in marriage Miss Rose Schenning and Alex Nigro. The Rev. H. J. O'Connor performed the 9:30 o'clock nuptials before an altar decorated with arrangements of chrysanthemums. Tiny seed pearls and sequins outlined the illusion yoke of the fitted bodice. A crown studded with seed pearls and sequins caught a fingertip veil of nylon illusion. Miss Schenning carried a prayer book topped with white roses. Dusty rose antique taffeta and velvet fashioned the waltz-length frock worn by Miss Dorothy Reiter of Silver Lake. Miss Reiter wore a matching velvet jacket and headpiece with nose veil. She carried a heart shaped arrangement of white chrysanthemums.

Bridesmaids were Miss Marlene VanDerZee, Silver Lake, and Miss Rose Nigro, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Jeanne Peterson, Oshkosh, junior bridesmaid. Each wore an ensemble similar to Miss Reiter's, in teal blue. All carried white chrysanthemums. Flower girl Susan De Marco of Racine wore a white organza frock and a halo of tiny flowers. She carried white chrysanthemums in a small basket. Bernie Covelli was ring bearer.

Grass Fires Sunday Kept Firemen Busy

Grass fires kept the Antioch fire department busy Sunday morning and evening.

The firemen were called to the Grimm property on the north shore of Loon Lake early in the day and at a still earlier hour at the Frank Martinek property at Bluff Lake. Deputy sheriffs kept the fire at Bluff Lake under control, until the firemen arrived and extinguished it. Buildings were being threatened, Chief Edgar Simonsen said.

On Sunday evening the department was called to the Be-Ley farm of Ben Keach in Bristol township where a score or more of tree stumps had caught fire from burning grass. The Antioch firemen answered the call while the Bristol department was on another call.

Homecoming....

played a series of exciting marches as the cheerleaders led the student body in several school yells.

Principal Albert Dittman paid tribute to the excellent cooperation between community and school and introduced Mayor James McMillen. The mayor was in excellent form and gave an inspiring pep talk to the football squads.

William Brook and Eugene Sheehan, alumni of Antioch High, presented enthusiastic messages.

Coaches Paul Kessenich and Robert Lambert, Varsity Captain John Wells, and Junior Varsity Captain Bill Layton gave the crowd of 1,500 pep talks.

There were 1,255 paid admissions to the football games. This was an increase in attendance of 171 over the 1952 Homecoming game.

The Homecoming dance committee reported 375 in attendance at the dance. The attendance last year was 207.

Prizes for floats in the parade were awarded as follows: Organizations—First prize, Junior Class, $10; second prize, tie between G. A. A. and Tom-Tom, with the two splitting the second and third prize money, $5.50 each.

Student cars—Harold Wilson, first, $5; Bernie Thompson, second, $3; Herbert Horton, third, $2.

Business cars—Antioch Auto Body, first, $5; Lasco's Greenhouse, second, $3; Leo J. Fox, third, $2.

The floats were judged on originality, neatness, and beauty.

"Wreck-less" Driving

Robert Thompson....

Sunday evening when he rode with a crew from Porto Rico back to Quonset Point for the trip he called her by telephone. It was on his return to Porto Rico that the fatal accident occurred.

According to meager reports one of the two motors of the bomber failed and the pilot tried to land at Bermuda. It is believed that Robert was with three other in the tail of the ship and that it struck the waters of the harbor first. The six crewmen in the front of the plane were saved, but the others couldn't get out.

Resident of Lake Villa

Ens. Thompson was born Dec. 12, 1930 in Oak Park, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Thompson and was just one year old when his parents came to Lake Villa where his father became headmaster of the Allendale School for Boys.

Of that family only the brother, William Thompson of Grayslake, assistant to County School Superintendent W. C. Petty, and the grandmother are living.

Robert was graduated from Antioch Township High school where he participated in many school activities. He enrolled in Lake Forest college where he became a member of Delta Chi fraternity. He engaged in dramatics and radio.

The young student interrupted his senior year in college to take up naval cadet training and was sent to Pensacola, Fla. His advanced training was at Hutchins-

Kan., where he received his ensign commission, Aug. 26 of this year.

After a 28-day leave spent in Antioch, Ens. Thompson was sent to Quonset Point.

His marriage to June Hunter of Antioch took place Dec. 23, 1952. She is a graduate of Antioch Township High school and of the Masonic Hospital School of Nursing, Chicago.

Antioch High School Board of Education Attends Conference

Board members of the local high school attended the fall conference and dinner meeting of the Illinois Association of School Boards last Thursday at the Hotel Morrison in Chicago.

Board of Education representatives Louis Biel, William Cain, Lester Hamlin and Roman Vos attended the various discussion groups with Principal Albert Dittman and Assistant Principal Elmo Edwards.

The topics for discussion were: What are the discretionary powers of the school board? Does the tenure law hold positive values for the board as well as the teacher? What guides should be used in determining teacher salaries? How can we achieve better articulation between high school and underlying elementary districts? An effective guidance program begins in the elementary school.

The main speaker at the dinner meeting at 6:15 p. m. was Charles R. Sligh, Jr., president of the National Association of Manufacturers. His subject was "Industry Looks at Education."

Danes Impressed....

back stiff and stern, but are comrades with the students—I like that," he said.

Denmark has but private schools on the high school level and the visitors were greatly interested in the education of the masses in this country.

Principal Dittman explained that the schools are operated through taxation which the people as a whole vote.

As a token of appreciation the visitors presented a piece of chinaware said to be 200 years old to Principal Dittman.

From the school the Danish merchants went to the Coddington hardware store where they posed for pictures with Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Coddington and spent more than an hour inspecting the fine stock. They asked the proprietor many questions about his methods of merchandising and paid many compliments on the appearance of his store and the completeness of the stock and how it is displayed.

Impressed by Yankee Methods
Commenting on American hardware stores, Torben Grue, Copenhagen merchant said:

"There are three things that impress us as we observe your hardware stores. First, there is the broad line of merchandise and the way it is displayed and promoted. You have self service in your groceries and quick service in your hardware stores."

"In our stores we pick up items from behind the counter and try to interest the customer in them. You place your articles out on tables for them to choose from and thereby save lots of time," he said. "Secondly, we like your packaging methods. You have explanation on much of your packed goods telling how the article may be used or operated."

"Thirdly, and most important to us is your consumer credit. That is something we don't have, and we could apply it to increase our business," Carstens explained.

The Danish merchants also were impressed with American advertising methods which create a demand for goods.

Visit Other Stores

Before leaving Antioch the visitors went to the variety store of Herman Holbek, who was born in Denmark and whose mother still lives there. They said they were quite happy over their visit in Antioch and will long remember their visit here. Many Danish speaking residents greeted them and asked about friends and relatives in their home communities.

Supervising the tour was Samuel C. Storall of the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, Washington, D. C.

Serving as guide in assisting the Coddingtons, was Loren Sexauer, local real estate man.

From Antioch the group returned to Chicago for the night and today were to continue their tour in Wisconsin, and then fly to California. They will return east by way of Kansas City and Indianapolis.

Sequoits Beat Rams...

Johnny Wells went around end for the score.

The fourth score was set up by Mike Haviland's return of a punt for 63 yards and Fred Miller went around end for the touchdown.

Grayslake scored in the fourth quarter through the running of Jay Hook and Norm Lech. The score was made, however, by Bill Wood who recovered a fumble in the Antioch end zone.

Antioch led 9 to 5 in first downs and 228 to 117 in yards gained. Gallagher carried the ball four times for 48 yards an average of 12 yards a try. Bill Blake showed equal prowess by 70 yards in six tries and Wilson who substituted at fullback gained 14 yards in two attempts. John Wells at half averaged six yards in three runs and Roy Baldwin, substituting for Wells gained 10 yards in two tries.

Sophs Win Two

In the preliminaries Lambert's sophomores continued their winning ways by blanking the Grayslake sophomores 19 to 7.

Tuesday evening the freshmen won from Palatine freshmen 19 to 7. Elva-Vernon continued as the top-ranking team by defeating Wauconda 7 to 0, and Palatine celebrated its homecoming by defeating Grant 33 to 0.

Grass Fire This Morning

A grass fire on Bean Hill road near the end of Little Silver Lake road, was the occasion for a call to the Antioch fire department this morning. The firemen quickly extinguished the blaze with no damage.

Indian Summer Lingers; Weather Is Warm, Dry

In what is believed to be the warmest and driest October on record, Antioch has had but three-tenths inch of rainfall in the last three weeks and there have been five days with temperatures higher than 80 degrees.

The last rainfall of any appreciable amount was .91 inch on Sept. 18, according to Cooperative Observer Roy Kufalk. This month there was .29 inch on the fourth, and .1 inch on Oct. 6.

Temperatures have been in the 70's and 80's much of the time with the lowest temperature being 33 degrees on the seventh. The mercury reached 84 degrees on Oct. 2, 20, and 21 as the highest.

It would appear that Indian summer came and stayed, one person observed. While cooler weather is expected tomorrow, warm weather is again forecast for next week.

Last year at this time there was snow.

Vandals Damage School

Police are seeking the identity of vandals who following the Homecoming football game at the Antioch Township High school did more than $100 worth of damage to the plumbing in the boys' locker room. It is believed that the damage was done while the school dance was in progress. Pipes and other fixtures were torn loose and bent.

Will Attend Conference

Walter I. Scott, water superintendent, and Trustees Arthur Hawkins and Ernest Glenn will go to Springfield Sunday to attend a two-day conference of water plant operators.

Something really Special -in power, room, ride, price

WE picture here a car that keeps our order book pages turning quicker than quick.

It is the 1953 Buick SPECIAL 4-Door Sedan—the bargain value, that doesn't stay long on our showroom floor.

For this is the best-selling Buick in the land—snapped up by eager buyers who know something really special when they see it.

For your information, we present some SPECIAL facts.

It has a Fireball 8 Engine with the highest power and compression ratio ever placed in a Buick SPECIAL—plus, if you wish, the instant getaway response and utter smoothness of Twin-Turbine Dynaflo.*

It has easy-sitting-room for six adults—as much room as you'll find in cars costing hundreds of dollars more.

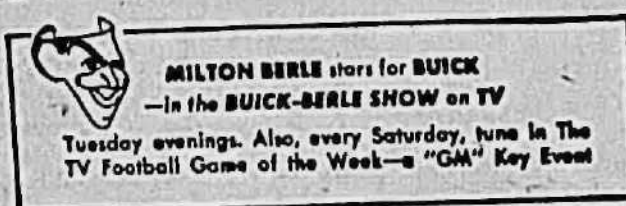

It has a ride unique among automobiles. The Buick Million Dollar Ride. The soft and steady and ever-level ride that comes of coil springs on all four wheels—a full-length torque-tube drive—a massive X-braced frame—a solid and substantial roadweight poised with meticulous balance on broadly spaced wheels.

But what makes the Buick SPECIAL so extra special is the low delivered price it carries.

It is a price just an easy step above the so-called "low-price three"—and a price that gives you more room and power and ride-comfort for your money than you get in any other car, except another Buick.

Wouldn't you like to see, sit in and drive one of these great-powered Buicks—look into its beauty, its luxury, its handling ease—and judge for yourself how small a price tag it wears?

Your Income Tax

"District Directors of Internal Revenue have been authorized by Internal Revenue Commissioner T. Coleman Andrews to serve appropriate notices on persons who have not maintained, for the purpose of correctly reporting taxes, records as required by law and regulations," E. J. Seuber, District Director, Chicago, said today.

"In the case of the average taxpayer, the keeping of such records is not at all difficult," Director Seuber stated, "but I do want to point out at this time that such records must be kept. Those taxpayers who have not done so should start now getting their cancelled checks, invoices, bill, receipts and other evidence of income and expenses together so they will be prepared to file their income tax forms well before the deadline next March 15."

"Although the Internal Revenue District office will do everything it can to help taxpayers to fill out forms properly and to answer their questions in the next few months we will have much more time to be helpful in January and February than we will when the early March rush arrives," the Director added.

Most people should have no difficulty in filling out their tax forms properly if they have kept simple records or have other evidence of income and expenses and will read carefully the instructions which will accompany the tax forms when they are ready for distribution about December 15 at the District office here," he explained.

"However, for those who do have questions they can't answer from the instructions, we will have agents available in this office for personal interviews and to answer telephone inquiries," he said. "Some taxpayers will have questions about new babies, medical expenses, part time employment, the cost of baby sitters, alimony, support, pensions, retirements and such situations as apply to Service men and their wives. We will give them all the help we can, of course, but we can be very much more helpful quickly if they have their records or other evidences such as cancelled checks and receipt on hand when they want to discuss their problems."

The issuance of appropriate notice to taxpayers who had failed to keep adequate records formerly was a function of the National Office.

New Drivers' License Laws Effective, Says Carpenter

In a recent meeting of the Rock Island Rotary club, Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter pointed to the new Illinois Drivers License Act, the new Illinois Securities Law and an extensive program of repair and rehabilitation of the Capital building as the major accomplishments of his first nine months in office.

Citing instances where the State was unable to take action against dangerous drivers in the past because it lacked the authority, Secretary Carpenter said:

"Today, we have a new drivers license law which has already been praised by traffic safety experts and motor vehicle administrators from various other states. It gives the State the control which had been so completely lacking before, control over those few drivers who are a constant menace to everyone on the streets and highways."

Since the new law became effective on July 1, more than 500 drivers' licenses have been revoked for conviction on charges of drunken driving, Secretary Carpenter said. "We don't permit a drunk to run down a crowded city street firing a gun," he declared. "Why, then, should we permit a drunk to drive a 2,000 pound car, careening down the same street?"

Mr. Carpenter outlined the provisions of the new Securities law, saying it increases the maximum penalty for fraudulent sale of securities from one to five years, gives the Secretary of State investigatory powers and also gives him the power of subpoena.

Declaring "our statehouse should be a showplace at all times," Secretary Carpenter told of the removal of some five tons of filth from the roofs and ledges of the building, cleaning of the skylight in the dome and the cleaning of paintings and statues in and around the building.

HOW DEEP IS "SKIN DEEP"?

by Science Features

Our everyday conversation is cluttered with references that link the skin with the emotions. People turn "purple with rage." We "sweat-out" an unpleasant situation. Trouble is only "skin-deep." We may occasionally "itch for revenge" or "get cold feet."

Scientists know that such expressions have a basis in fact. Emotions may greatly affect the health of the skin. Recently, a Denver skin specialist, Dr. Gerald M. Frumess, stated that "the skin may reveal emotional states as eloquently as do the muscles of facial expression."

Emotional factors, the doctor said, affect two skin diseases known to have an organic cause. These are warts and the well-known "fever blister" or "cold sore." They may also lead to such common skin disturbances as rosacea, which causes discoloration and thickening of the skin, and eczema, or outbreaks of pimples and blackheads.

The specialist cited cases in which ten people suffering from recurring "fever blisters" were successfully treated with brief psychiatric care. He added that the value of suggestion in curing warts, used by such fictional heroes as Tom Sawyer and Huck Finn, is today a recognized scientific fact.

Rosacea occurs often in people with a tendency to blush easily, and who are subject to various intestinal disorders. The Denver physician suggests that treatment requires that the personality pattern which causes excessive blushing be corrected as well as the skin disorder itself.

So it seems that many skin diseases are more than "skin-deep."

SHORT STORY

The Coward

By James Marsh

JOHNNY SUTTON could see the cloud of dust off in the distance. He knew it could be only one thing, Chet Randall moving his raiders again. Chet had been known to say that Johnny Sutton's Sliding S spread was the next ranch he would hit when he broke prison. Johnny pulled his gun and harness from the rack, checked his load and stepped onto the porch. The dust cloud was a might closer and Johnny felt a sickness roll over him. It had been Johnny's father, Sheriff Sutton, who had closed the case against Randall's rustling. The old sheriff had hung up his star shortly after he saw Chet off to prison for a long term. Young Johnny filled in the vacancy.

Clay Fox came up to Johnny on the porch. "Do you reckon it's Randall and his pack of no-goods?" "I reckon it is, Clay."

"You figure on trouble?"

"Not while the sun's shining."

Some dark night he'll make his play."

Chet Randall was leading about thirty armed men. They circled the porch.

"I'm sure sorry about the old man being laid up, Sutton. It would be a darn shame if he doesn't kick off." Chet laughed loudly. Johnny clenched his fist in anger. "We'll put a rope around your neck this time, Randall," Johnny said.

"You're not man enough, lawman! One of these nights I aim to help myself to what's yours."

Randall turned and motioned to his men and led them away.

"What do you figure on doing?" Clay Fox asked.

"Wait and think, Clay. We'll show him. I once learned you can bait a bully and a coward with a little fear."

In the late afternoon Johnny Sutton opened the door to his father's room. The old gentleman sat up in bed. "You had visitors, son?"

"Chet Randall and his boys," Johnny said.

"The cattle?"

"They're safe enough. The boys are bringing in the strays. We'll have the whole herd bunched around the house. If he aims to get our stock he'll have to ride up here to get them. And we'll be waiting."

"There's not too many fights left in this old carcass, son, but this is one show I don't want to miss. The doc says I can be getting out of bed soon."

Johnny clenched his fist in anger while he listened to Chet.

"You're staying right where you are. If my plan works we can use you, though."

"I reckon you're the boss now, son. I'll do what you say."

The next night Sheriff Sutton and Clay Fox heard the horses in the distance. Johnny's men were staked around the house.

Randall pulled to a stop in the dark shadow of the porch. "This is it, Sutton. You can't see them, but my boys are ready and waiting to open up if you try anything."

"Drop your gun, Randall!" Old man Sutton's voice was loud and clear in the darkness of the night. A candle burned in the upstairs window and Randall saw the man leaning on the window sill. Winchester raised to his shoulder, his night shirt gleaming in the candle light.

Chet Randall gave a sharp cry of surprise. He sat motionless, his eyes staring at the figure in the window. Johnny and Clay took that moment to spring from the porch and jump the raider. Randall's men scattered without firing a shot and the Sliding S cowpokes took out after them.

"I was gambling that you'd seen yesterday's paper," Johnny said as he pulled the folded edition of the Silver Plain's Record from the raider's pocket. "I reckon tomorrow I'll have to spend the whole day telling the town folks it was only bait to trap a coward." Johnny held the paper up for Clay to read the story. "DEATH TAKES BELOVED SHERIFF, BEN S. SUTTON."

Foreman Clay Fox was shaking his head. "I reckon we're all afraid of ghosts, Johnny."

A Famous American Ship

The CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS, said to have carried more passengers in her 44 years than any other liner on the Great Lakes, according to the American Merchant Marine Institute. Built in 1892 she was the best known of the "whaleback" type. This unusual design was intended to offer minimum resistance to wind and sea. Difficulties in unloading cargo and also limitations were serious handicaps, however, and the style was not long popular. Great Lakes shipping is an important part of our merchant marine. High construction costs are making it virtually impossible for private shipping to build new ships for passenger or freight services. Without new ships the American Merchant Marine can not long perform its service to our peacetime economy or serve as our "fourth arm" in war.
